BY-LAWS OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB OF FRANKFORT

Passed October the 15th, 1906.

No. 1. The initiation fee for members shall be $2.00.

No. 2. Yearly dues payable in October shall be $3.00. If a member enters the Club in January, her dues for that year shall be $2.00.

If dues and fines are not paid by the business meeting in May, the member's name shall be dropped from the Club's books.

No. 3. Candidates for membership shall be nominated from the floor at the first meeting in October, January and May by a person who has been in the Club for at least two years. Previous to nomination, the names must be approved by the Directory.

No. 4. The election of members shall be by ballot and follow the nomination. Three negative votes shall exclude a candidate.

No. 5. Nominations for President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer shall be made successively by ballot at the March business meeting, and the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared eligible for immediate election.

No. 6. The election of officers shall be by ballot, and follow the nomination. A majority of those present shall elect.

No. 7. Officers may serve two successive terms.

No. 8. The Club shall meet on the second and fourth Mondays of each month during the Club year, which shall extend from October to May inclusive, except the fourth Monday in December and the fourth Monday in May.

No. 9. Regular business meetings shall be held on the second Monday in October and the second Monday in March. Business may also be transacted at the program meetings.

No. 10. Ten members shall constitute a quorum for all business.

No. 11. Resignations from the Club must be in writing addressed to the Secretary.

No. 12. Any member resigning may, with the approval of the Directory, be reinstated without the payment of initiation fee.

No. 13. Sectarian, religious and partisan political discussions are forbidden.

No. 14. The treasurer shall call the roll, register and receive the initiation fees, dues and fines.

No. 15. A fine of fifty cents shall be imposed for absence from Club meetings, unless a written excuse be sent to the treasurer before or during the time of meeting. A member shall be fined $2.00 who fails to fill her part of the program or to supply a substitute.

No. 16. A member entering after roll call shall be considered tardy and fined 10 cents.

No. 17. Each member is allowed to bring one or more visitors from out of town. The hostess at whose house the Club meeting is held is invited to be present at the meeting of the Club.

No. 18. Books belonging to the Club shall not be kept from the bookcase for more than two weeks, except by special permission of the librarian. For a violation of this law a fine of 25 cents per week shall be imposed.

No. 19. A person being absent from three consecutive meetings without written excuse, forfeits her membership.

No. 20. The place of meeting shall be decided by the Directory. Notice of same shall be given at the preceding meeting of the Club, and to absentees from that meeting, the secretary shall give notice.

No. 21. These by-laws shall not be amended by the Directory unless notice of such amendment has been given at a preceding meeting of the Club.
